Art Unit: 1793

The traverse is noted. However, the requirement is proper as there is a substantial burden of search, especially in view of the large number of claims. Claims 62-74 are withdrawn. The requirement is made FINAL.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-61, 75-77 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Linares et al. 6582513.

The reference teaches highly pure and perfect CVD diamond- see col. 3 for example. Even though the properties are not reported, they are deemed possessed by the reference since the description of purity comports with the specification.

Claims 1-61, 75-77 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Vichr et al. 5443032.

The reference teaches highly pure and perfect CVD diamond- see col. 10 line 55 for example. Even though the properties are not reported, they are deemed possessed by the reference since the description of purity comports with the specification.

Art Unit: 1793

The above references are taken to be representative of the high-purity diamond art. Hence, other references of interest are not applied in order to avoid duplication of rejection.
